U. S. SAILORS MAY STAGE BASEBALL IN TURKEY

Trebizond Business Men Anxious to Have School Children Learn American Game.

By United Press.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 9.—Baseball teams from American destroyers of the Black Sea fleet have been invited to stage a series of championship games this summer at Trebizond. A pennant for the winning team will be given by Turkish business men.

The invitation to the American sailors was sent to Admiral Mark Bristol, United States, high commissioner at Constantinople. It was in the name of General Hazim Bey, military commandant of Trebizond, and Prof. Morieu Bey, superintendent of the local schools. The municipal authorities plan the erection of an up-to-date baseball diamond close to the harbor, so that any sailors compelled to remain on board the destroyers may view the game from the decks of their ships.

"We are very anxious to encourage American ships to spend as much time as possible in Trebizond," says Prof. Morieu Bey in a letter accompanying the invitation. "We are going to take every advantage of their presence to encourage American athletics in our schools. All the grandstand seats at the baseball games will be reserved for school children, who we hope will learn the American game and the American athletic spirit."

CARTER TO MEET TRAGOS

Match May Be Arranged for Next Friday Night.

Peter James, manager and trainer of George Tragos, Olympic middle-weight champion, is trying to stage a wrestling match between his man and Lloyd Carter, manager and trainer of Jake Reed. Carter took the place of Reed in the bouts last Tuesday night and won two falls from the Balkan Lion.

While Carter out-weighs Tragos by about thirty pounds both men are eager for the match and the bout will probably be arranged for next Friday night. Several preliminaries will also be staged at that time. The wrestlers are both ready to put up the necessary $1,000 forfeit money. The place has not been definitely decided upon, but the 16th of June will probably be the date for bout.

According to Peter James, nothing more has been heard from Gus Eisel of St. Louis who challenged Tragos to a match at 165 pounds.

MASON MAY PLAY SECOND

Wabada Utility Infielder Is Earning a Regular Berth.

Harold E. Mason, all-around man, for the Columbia Wabadas, played first base for Marceline, Mo., in 1919; in 1920 and 1921 he played third. He is a right handed thrower and bats the same way. Last year Coach Miller used him as a second string man on the Varsity infield. [This year he looks good around second, and if McMillan goes to short it is likely he will play regularly at that position.

Who Are the 5 Great Ball Players?

Boys, here's a new one. See the funny cartoon in the picture. They are the names of Five Big League Ball Players with the letters of their names rearranged. Can you straighten out the letters to spell their names correctly? If you can, it will be easy for you to win a real Culver Racer Automobile or $250 in cash.

Start right in. The first name is—well, I'm sure you can guess. Yes—it's Bambino (Ruth, the mighty "Babe," King of the home run hitters. Put that down on your list and it will be easy to get the rest. Just to help refresh your memory, I am naming some of the star players: Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, Bambino Ruth, George Sisler, Carl Mays, Ray Schall, Roger Hornsby and Walter Hoyt.

135 Points Wins First Prize

If you can correctly re-arrange the five names of the baseball players I'll give you 100 points toward winning the $250 prize or the Culver Racer. You will gain 25 more points by proving that you have a copy of The Rapid Weekly to three of your friends. This will give you 125 points in all. The final 10 points will be awarded by the judges of the puzzle to the boy who sends in the largest correct list of words made up from the letters in the name of the Home Run King—"Bambino Ruth."

Send in your names of the five ball players and your list of words together. Send them in NOW.

Everybody Wins a Prize

Remember, boys, you don't have to spend any money of your own money to win, and everybody who helps boost The Rapid Weekly wins a Special Prize. You can win one. All you need to do is indicate The Rapid Weekly to three of your friends; but first send your answer to the puzzle, and if it is correct, I'll give you 100 points. Then I'll show you how easy it is to win that other 25 points necessary to win the $250 prize or the Culver Racer.

Write the names of the five ball players correctly on a piece of paper, and send it in right away with your list of words. July 8th is the last day to send your answer. HURRY!
